AC LANDFRIED and AC KARISCH,

Please see attached from Twitter Account Alt Immigration.

It purports to have a series of emails from 5 CBPOs.

(b) (7)(E)

The initial data dump appears to be a single email chain, but the tweet indicates more emails to come.

Additionally, the third attachment is a tweet I sent to AC KARISCH earlier today, indicating the group is willing to pay for negative information on our employees.

Thank you for looking into the matter.

Hi (b) (6)

As of this morning, the lawsuit by Twitter has been voluntarily dismissed because CBP has withdrawn the summons. Given that there is no longer any pending legislation, I have a number of questions:

1. Why did CBP submit the summons seeking information on @ALT_USCIS?
2. Why did DOJ withdraw the summons following the filing of the lawsuit?
3. Did CBP's general counsel approve the summons?
4. Who beside (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) was involved in the issuing of the summons?
5. Has CBP issued other summons to Twitter seeking to unmask anonymous critical accounts?

Thanks,

(b) (6)

Hi folks,

I'm a reporter with the Guardian US. Twitter has sued DHS regarding a summons issued by CBP seeking to unmask the identity of the anonymous @ALT_uscis case. The case number is 3:17-cv-01916.

Can you confirm that CBP sought to force Twitter to provide identifying information about this account? Can DHS or CBP explain why they sought to unmask an anonymous Twitter account that has offered pointed criticism of US immigration policy? Does DHS/CBP have a response or comment on this lawsuit?

Thanks very much,

An actor on Twitter who uses the alias ALT□

Immigration (@ALT_USCIS) has released the first installment of what they claim are 50 batches of emails exchanged between officers of the U.S. Customs and Border Protection (USCBP) agency on the night of the 2016 presidential election. The USCBP, among other duties, is charged with regulating entry to the United States of people, agriculture, and animals.

The leaked emails purportedly show USCBP agents celebrating President Trump's victory in the elections, using derogatory racial epithets to describe Mexicans and detailing their plans to target people of this ethnic group with violence. All identifying information in the emails has been redacted.

The @ALT_USCIS Twitter handle was created in January 2017, likely to protest the election victory of President Trump. The authors of the Twitter account call themselves the "official inside resistance ALT immigration . Not the views of DHS [Department of Homeland Security] or USCIS [US Citizenship and Immigration Services]." It is not clear, however, if the actors are claiming to be employees of the USCBP. The actor behind the account has a liberal bent and praises Barack Obama while denigrating President Trump and his policies, particularly concerning immigration.

Regarding the leaks, the actor claimed that they were not against the USCBP or its employees, writing, "We want: to raise awareness about toxic culture within CBP. We dont want: personal info released, retaliation. Good CBP peep exist."

Flashpoint is not able to substantiate the claims made by ALT□

Immigration and will continue to monitor this unfolding situation.

Refreshing your memory, we opened a case associated with the matter below. SA (b) (6), (b) (7) was made the case agent. He was investigating the case in conjunction with OPR, (b) (7)(E). The attached summons was served on Twitter. An email exchange between Twitter's legal firm, Wilmer Hale, and SA (b) (6), (b) (7) ensued. Twitter objected to the summons and fought CBP's authority pursuant to Title 19 USC 1509 (b) (7) (<https://www.law.cornell.edu/uscode/text/19/1509>). Just spoke to OCC who stated Twitter's counsel filed suit against CBP in Federal Court, Ninth District, San Francisco, CA. OCC is coordinated with OC and OPA. They do not need anything from us at the moment. I will keep you looped in.

Hello (b) (7)(E)

Please see attached information. One screen shot (Twitter account, see below) has an email address that is asking for dirt on CBP employees. Can we see if there has been any email traffic to that email address?

(b) (7)(E) maybe able to key word search on the emails (see PDF) to see if any are related to email we journal.

Also it's been requested that we (b) (7)(E) to make sure our systems have not been compromised. AC Landfried has been notified too so you might get similar requests.

Thanks,

An actor on Twitter who uses the alias ALT

Immigration (@ALT_USCIS) has released the first installment of what they claim are 50 batches of emails exchanged between officers of the U.S. Customs and Border Protection (USCBP) agency on the night of the 2016 presidential election. The USCBP, among other duties, is charged with regulating entry to the United States of people, agriculture, and animals.

The leaked emails purportedly show USCBP agents celebrating President Trump's victory in the elections, using derogatory racial epithets to describe Mexicans and detailing their plans to target people of this ethnic group with violence. All identifying information in the emails has been redacted.

The @ALT_USCIS Twitter handle was created in January 2017, likely to protest the election victory of President Trump. The authors of the Twitter account call themselves the "official inside resistance ALT immigration . Not the views of DHS [Department of Homeland Security] or USCIS [US Citizenship and Immigration Services]." It is not clear, however, if the actors are claiming to be employees of the USCBP. The actor behind the account has a liberal bent and praises Barack Obama while denigrating President Trump and his policies, particularly concerning immigration.

Regarding the leaks, the actor claimed that they were not against the USCBP or its employees, writing, "We want: to raise awareness about toxic culture within CBP. We dont want: personal info released, retaliation. Good CBP peep exist."

Flashpoint is not able to substantiate the claims made by ALT

Immigration and will continue to monitor this unfolding situation.

AC LANDFRIED and AC KARISCH,

Please see attached from Twitter Account Alt Immigration.

It purports to have a series of emails from 5 CBPOs.

(b) (5), (b) (7)(E)

The initial data dump appears to be a single email chain, but the tweet indicates more emails to come.

Additionally, the third attachment is a tweet I sent to AC KARISCH earlier today, indicating the group is willing to pay for negative information on our employees.

Thank you for looking into the matter.

Refreshing your memory, we opened a case associated with the matter below. (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) was made the case agent. He was investigating the case in conjunction with OPR (b) (7)(E). The attached summons was served on Twitter. An email exchange between Twitter's legal firm, Wilmer Hale, and SA Hoffman ensued. Twitter objected to the summons and fought CBP's authority pursuant to Title 19 USC 1509 (<https://www.law.cornell.edu/uscode/text/19/1509>). Just spoke to OCC (b) (5).

I will keep you looped in.

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY

SUMMONS NOTICE

to Appear and/or Produce Records

19 U.S.C. § 1509

Attached is a copy of a summons served by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) or U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP), both agencies within the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), to examine records or to request testimony relating to records of your business transactions or affairs which have been made or kept by the person named in Block 1 of the summons.

If you object to the examination of these records, you may stay (prevent) examination of the records until a summons enforcement proceeding is commenced in court. Compliance with the summons will be stayed if, not later than the day before the date indicated in Block 2 of the summons, you advise the person summoned (the person named in Block 1), in writing, not to comply with the summons, and you send a copy of that notice by registered or certified mail to the CBP Officer or ICE Special Agent who issued the summons at the address shown in Block 6 of the summons.

CBP or ICE may begin an action to enforce the summons in the appropriate United States District Court. In such cases, you will be notified and you will have the right to intervene and present your objections before the court. The court will decide whether the person summoned should be required to comply with the summons.

If the court issues an order to comply with the summons and the person summoned fails to comply, the court may punish such failure as a contempt of court. Other sanctions may be provided by law.

James,

(b) (5), (b) (7)(E)

It purports to have a series of emails from 5 CBPOs.

(b) (5), (b) (7)(E)

The initial data dump appears to be a single email chain, but the tweet indicates more emails to come.

Additionally, the third attachment is a tweet I sent to AC KARISCH earlier today, indicating the group is willing to pay for negative information on our employees.
