STATE'S MOTION TO STRIKE INTERVENORS' SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION FOR ACCESS TO COURT FILINGS

NOW COME THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, by and through their Attorney, JOSEPH H. MCMAHON, Special Prosecutor and State's Attorney of Kane County, Illinois and requests this court strike Intervenors' Supplemental Motion for Access to Court Filings and subsequent reply and in support of states as follows:

On May 31, 2018 this court made it abundantly clear that there had only been one decorum order entered in this case and further cautioned against the confusion that would be created by referring to the February 3, 2017 order as a "decorum order". On May 29, 2018 the Intervenors filed a Supplemental Motion for Access to Court Filings. In that filing the Intervenors repeatedly referred to the February 3, 2017 order as a "decorum order" and sought relief which included vacating said order. Because the intervenors requested to vacate a decorum order that did not exist, their Supplemental Motion for Access to Court Filings fails to request appropriate relief and should be stricken. To make matters worse, in a reply filed on the matter on June 11, 2018 the intervenors attached at least one document that again, and with no disclaimer, repeatedly referred to the February 3, 2017 order as a "decorum order". This filing has a propensity to inject confusion into the record and therefore should also be stricken.

WHEREFORE, the People of the State of Illinois respectfully request that this Court enter an order striking Intervenors' Supplemental Motion for Access to Court filings and subsequent reply.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

People of the State of Illinois
Joseph H. McMahon
Special Prosecutor
Kane County State's Attorney
