

Proposal Questions

- Describe the local and/or regional news organizations and journalists whose reporting would benefit from additional legal support, and how their reporting would benefit.
- Describe the biggest legal challenges facing enterprise and investigative reporters in your city or state.
- Describe how additional pro bono legal support would enable enterprise and investigative reporting about important issues affecting communities in your city or state that are currently being under-reported. If additional pro bono legal support would enable reporting about issues affecting communities of color or under-covered communities in your city or state, tell us how.
- The Reporters Committee is looking to work closely with local and regional partners and collaborators committed to supporting local journalism in nonprofit and for-profit newsrooms, at state press associations, law firms, and on university campuses, including at law schools. Describe the potential local and regional partners in your city and state that make it the right home for a Reporters Committee attorney.
- Are you willing to provide office space or other support for a Reporters Committee attorney located in your city or state? Describe the support you are willing to provide.