ORDER OF COURT

AND NOW, this 14th day of APRIL, 2022, this matter come before the Court for a Status Conference. The Court discussed the case with Counsel off the record. Counsel advised the Court that with a little more time they thought they could resolve the matter. The Court granted them additional time, and they have reached agreement.

The parties have reached an agreement and desire to have that agreement memorialized in an Order as follows:

1. Harmony Borough Counsel shall submit a letter approved by Plaintiff's Counsel advising Harmony Borough Council and Mayor of the factual and procedural history of this case.
2. Borough Council will be making a recommendation to the Borough's Right to Know Officer that the Officer shall obtain cost-effective additional training in Right to Know procedures.

3. Harmony Borough holds Plaintiff, James Hulings, harmless for any costs or damages which could possibly result from his Right to Know request and litigation of this matter.

BY THE COURT,
