PER CURIAM

ORDER

NOW, May 9, 2022, upon consideration of Joint Application to Consolidate Appeals or, in the Alternative, Coordinate Briefing Schedules and Oral Argument (Motion to Consolidate), wherein the parties request that this matter be consolidated with a similar matter docketed at No. 160 C.D. 2022, this Court issues the following Order:

The Motion to Consolidate is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part. The request of the parties to consolidate the two matters is DENIED, as it appears that these cases have separate certified records. However, because the matters are related, these cases shall proceed seriatim. As such, these matters shall be submitted to the same panel for decision and shall be argued together or seriately, if oral argument is allowed and scheduled by the Court. The request to consolidate the briefing schedules for these two matters is also GRANTED. Currently, the briefs in 142 C.D. 2022 are due on May 31, 2022, and the briefs in 160 C.D. 2022 are due on May 23, 2022. The Petitioners' briefs (4 copies) and reproduced record (4 copies) in both matters shall now be due on May 31, 2022, and the briefs of Respondent (4 copies) shall be due 30 days after the filing and service of Petitioners' briefs.
