

02/07/12 13:40:16
St. Landry Parish Clerk Of Court
02/07/12 13:40:22
St. Landry Parish Clerk Of Court

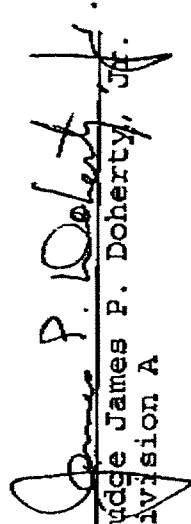

EN BANC ORDER

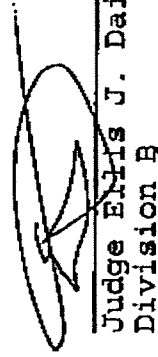

The four judges of the Twenty-Seventh Judicial District Court, in and for the Parish of St. Landry, acting in accordance with Revised Statutes 46:1844 (W), hereby enter the following en banc order:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that all criminal records maintained by the Clerk of Court's Office involving crimes made reference to by Revised Statutes 46:1844 (W) will be sealed from public view with the exception of certified court minutes in such proceedings, which will be available for review by the general public, upon specific request for same, and all such minutes will be redacted to prevent disclosure of information which could identify or lead to the identity of the victims of the categories of criminal acts made reference to in said section of said statute.

Opelousas, Louisiana this 7th day of February, 2012.

St. Landry Parish Clerk of Court's Office
Filed February 7th 2012
Katie Nolin
By Clerk

Judge James P. Doherty, Jt.
Division A

Judge Ellis J. Daigle
Division B

Judge Alonzo Harris
Division C

Judge Donald W. Hebert
Division D