Delacey:

Why don't you work on it and then let me do a quick read and edit this afternoon. Thanks.

Also, as you probably divined from my earlier email, Matt has written a memo from me to the D legislative leadership outlining what I did for them in the mid-terms. It is designed to engender loyalty and point out the virtues of coordination. Since it could wind up in a reporter's hands, I would love it if you could read it quickly just to make sure it's kosher. You should get a copy emailed to you later today.

Governor,

We owe the Roanoke Times an op ed on illegal immigration today. Brian gave me a draft to work with last night. I'd like to play with it a little this morning, then give it to you to work on in the early afternoon, unless you'd prefer to work on it now, in which case I can send you the unedited draft Brian provided.

Let me know.

Thanks!

Delacey
